

Seven Pepper Seasoning

This seasoning is a blend of various peppers and spices, including red and black pepper, pink peppercorns, white pepper, green peppers, garlic, and salt. The most prevalent aroma is pepper with a hint of garlic.

This seasoning is a wonderful blend that can be used in almost every dish. Use it in cold salads, on steaks, chicken, fish, vegetables, marinades, and as a table top spice offering.

Seven Pepper Chicken Salad

1/2 gl. mayonnaise
1/4 c. Seven Pepper Seasoning
1/2 c. parsley flakes
8 oz. sour cream
10 lb. boneless, skinless, chicken breast finely diced celery, if desired.

Boil chicken breast in a large pot with a little salt added. Chicken broth or stock may be used. Cook chicken to 170° internal temp. Allow chicken to cool. Dice into bite size pieces. Blend the mayo along with the Seven Pepper Seasoning and parsley flakes. Add sour cream and mix well. Toss with cooled chicken and chill. Serve over salad, in a wrap, or in a sandwich.
